PASSED BY SENATE

Characterized by Unusual Proceedings.

Washington, October 23.—The La-Follette substitute for the "scamen's servitude bill," amended so that it will not affect the treaty relations of the United States until the President has end of a debate that was characterized by unusual proceedings.

In the end, the debate became an eulogy of Andrew Feruseth, president of the Søamen's Union, lauded as the man chiefly responsible for the gas-sage of the bill. Mr. Feruseth, who had sat in a Senate gallery throughout the debate, was declared by Senator LaFollette (Republican), and Senator Williams (Democrat), to have worked Williams (Democrat), to have worked in Washington for many years, 'ht a seaman's pay," to get legislation through Congress improving the working conditions of his fellow sailors.
